

Two new directors elected to the Coalition Board

Edmonton, December 02, 2013

The Edmonton Multicultural Coalition (EMC) held its Annual General Meeting Friday, November 29 2013 at the Senior Lions Centre. The highlight of the well-attended AGM was the election of two new members of the board. The election attracted a total of five candidates – Athermon Rurangwa, Hakin Isse, Edrick Andrews, Abdoulaye Barry and Abdul Daash Hussein, a founding director of the Coalition. After the secret ballot voting, Abdoulaye Barry from Guinea and Abdul Daash Hussein from the Somali community were declared winners. Board president, Rosslynn Zulla thanked members, volunteers, staff and fellow board members for their dedication and hard work that have helped the Coalition continue to realize its objectives. She also thanked sponsors and partners for continuing to support the Coalition's projects and programs. Others who spoke include Mrs. Dianna Fondo, the Executive Director and Shem Momanyi, the Treasurer. Other board members present included Amandla Ngweya, Kemoh Mansaray, and Telesfora Balanag. Also present were staff members – Lawrence Muganga, Sharif Haji, Sanjaya Dhakal, Ayan Mohammed and outgoing coordinator of Beyond Our Ourselves project, Aliya Jamal. The master of ceremonies was Mr Kemoh Mansaray who is also the secretary of the Board of Governors while a girls' dance troupe from Nepal provided riveting entertainment.
